I have been working as a Software Engineer. I have a strong overall programming experience building Web-based and large-scale systems using Object Oriented Programming languages with 6+ years of experience of building web applications with .Net Framework, JavaScript frameworks and MS Dynamics CRM and Mobile Applications using cross platforms like React Native and Xamarin.

I always update my knowledge by studying state-of-the-art development tools, programming techniques, and computing equipment, participating in educational opportunities, and reading professional blogs especially for Scott Hanselman, Jon Skeet and Martin Fowler.
